Sri Sarja Jagadeesh aged 59 years is born at Shimoga. His father is a Land Lord in that area. His family is big one Mr. Jagadeesh has Four brothers and two sisters, he is the fifth one in his family of 6 members.

He did his BSC from the Mysore University and completed his CAIIB subsequently after joining in the bank.

He has joined in our great Bank in the year 1980 as a Clerk and after 14 years of his excellent service he got promoted to the office cadre in the year 1994. And finally to Scale III in the year 2008. If he has opted for further promotions, he would have been DGM by this time.

Since beginning he has participated actively in all the association activities and started attending all the meetings. At that time Sri K P Ballur, former president of CBOA and Mr. C B Prabhakar, former JGS of CBOA were the top leaders in the Mangalore area. They have identified the leadership qualities in Mr. Jagadeesh. In recognition of his work towards the members Mr. Jagadeesh has been elected as the DS in the year 2000.

His further contribution and active participation and reachable to the members made him to be elected as the CC member in the 2007 Chennai biennial conference.

His elevations are unstoppable and central leadership acknowledged his service towards the members and finally he has been nominated to the coveted CNT and also as an OGS in the year 2106.

Whoever receives explanation letter or charge sheet in the Shimoga area, the first person they remember is Sri Jagadeesh. He is well Known DR in the area of Mangalore and nearby areas.

He has started DR career since 2002 and defended so many persons in the last 15 years. In many cases, he defended were ended with No punishment and in some cases with negligible punishment. It gave him immense satisfaction.

He has born in a land lord family, since beginning his father never tolerate any injustice to anybody. He has got his father qualities since child hood and never tolerates injustice. This made him to choose the trade union path, because as a trade union leader he can question and arrest the injustice.

His contribution towards bank is quite remarkable. All along he is in operations side, wherever he has worked he showed the best performance. He headed the SME Shimoga branch, which is rated as the best branch in the circle in his period.

His performance was acknowledged and he has been identified and sent to the external trainings by the management.

As per the call of the central leadership, he has participated actively in Canpal activities, the best can pal activity conducted by him are Blood donation camp at Shimoga and providing the necessities to a Govt School.

Since he is in the CC for the last 10 years, he has got the opportunity to see the top leaders closely. In his opinion the present era under the leadership of Sri G V Manimaran is the golden era. Not like other trade unions, here the succession plans were very well laid and even third and fourth generation leader were identified.

In his opinion, the present generation has got good talent and they are capable of run the organization. His message to the younger generation is have the positive thoughts, believe in, not to tolerate injustice and to make the Bank No 1 along with CBOA.

Sri Sarja Jagadeesh is an inspiration to many, he is going to retire from the service in another ten months. Hats off to you sir, we will follow your foot steps and will further strengthen the organization in the days to come.
