Miss Vidhi Jatania, a tradition Indian girl, always with a smile on her face is the Central Committee member cum women rep from Ahmedabad.

She did her Post Graduation in English from Sourashtra University. She is very active during her college days and used to participate in many competitions and used to do competing in Hindi in various college and university level functions.

She has joined in our esteemed Bank during the year 2011, as a clerk and got promoted to officer cadre in the year 2016 and with her promotion she became the member of our great organization CBOA.

She used to participate in all the activities of the association and created a whatsapp group Named "CBOA Narishakthi" and used to post all the messages of the General Secretary and other top office bearers in the group.

So that she used to bring the entire communication to the member's knowledge. By seeing her activity Sri Ricchharya ji identified her and introduced to the General Secretary.

She has been co-opted as the women rep cum CC in the biennial conference held at Hyderabad during November 2016. She has chosen the path of Trade union to help the members in General and to motivate the girls in particular for active participation in various association activities.

Due to the whatsapp group created by her, the bonding between the girls improved and they started participating in various activities. She is very good at Hindi Essay writing and won 25 national prizes in various Hindi essay writing contests conducted by head office and stood in first rank many times.

She has recently won the All India Inter Banking Essay competition for 2014-15 and received the certificate from Sri Raghu ram rajan, -the then Governor of RBI.

She is doing very good service in Ahmedabad and playing a leading role in coordinating with the lady members and building a strong Narishakthi group.

Hats off to you Miss Vidhi Jatania and we wish for continuation of the same efforts to strengthen the association and also to build a strong Narishakthi group in the days to come to build a strong CANARA BANK.
