Sri Mukund Zalki, is one of the strongest and committed leader of the Gulbarga Region since his joining in the CBOA.

He is available all the time to the people and member friendly, with a good exposure in various activities. He has a good command and respect from the members in the Raichur area. He is a commerce graduate from the Karnataka University, dharwad.

Since his students days, he is a student leader and very active in the student organization named ABVP. He has joined in the Banks as a Clerk in the year 1995, he got promoted to the officer cadre in the year 2006 and since his promotion he is very active in the association activities and he used to be in front for all type of activities .

His services were well recognized by the then DGS Sri K H Dasar. Due to his active role and helping nature, he has been elected as the District secretary in the year 2007 at Chennai biennial conference.

He has participated very actively in all the calls given by the top leadership and he is available for the members all the times.

He has helped many members and bailed out from their problems. His services were very well recognized and this made him to be elected as the CC member from Gulbarga Circle in 2013 Chennai biennial conference.

In 2016 Hyderabad biennial conference, he has been elected as the Regional secretary of the newly formed Raichur Regional office.

The person influenced him in the initial years of his career his Mr. K h Dasar, who has taught and trained him in various leadership qualities.

Since his college days, Mr. Zalki available wherever there is problem.

He has a strong belief that, as a leader of the majority association, we can help so many people.

This all made him to choose the trade union path.

Besides the regular activities, he is also looking after giving reply to the letters received by the members.

He has started defending the charge sheets and he is with a feeling that, defending his charge sheets is saving the family. In a recent case which he defended, the Charge sheeted officer is about to get dismiss from the service , but due to his line of defence and good liaison with the circle by the top leadership, the CSO was awarded with a minor punishment .

It is one of his greatest achievement.

As GS used to say, all my office bearers are the excellent workers, Sri Zalki also falls in the same category.

He feels his best contribution is during debt waiver in the year 2008-09 in the Biajpur main branch , where he has worked in day and night and able to complete the process with in the stipulated time frame to the satisfaction of the Bank and Govt officials .

Hats off to you Mr. Zalki, we wish you to continue the same kind of energy and tempo in the days to come to further strengthen the CBOA and through CBOA, our Bank too
