PROUD OF CANPALS – A MOVEMENT

Dear friends,

Today morning I received a surprise call from an unknown caller but turned out to be a CANPAL family member – introduced herself as TANIA- daughter of our CANPAL cadre P K AHUJA whom we lost in Hyderabad after the biennial due to sudden cardiac failure.

In a clear and firm tone, TANIA asked me whether I am Manimaran and when I said yes, she started “ uncle, it was an unbearable loss to our family which we are trying to manoeuvre, our Dad was a great man settled every one of us comfortably.

We thank your good selves for showing concern towards our family which I came through your letter and others’ response. We are really comfortable and we may not need such an assistance.

My father’s response also would be the same if he is alive”

It was a polite, humble but very firm voice.

Dumbstruck for a while, but regained the conscious quickly and responded, “ sorry dear, at the outset I am proud of you and your great father. The intention of the call to contribute was to educate our CBOA members, spread over the country, differently identified by caste, community, creed, religion, language, age, gender and territory, the power of unity.

We the CBOA members want to display our oneness through this CANPAL.”

Now, a matured reaction from her, without dropping an inch of firmness in her voice, she said, “ Then it's alright uncle, Thanks a lot, but the collected money can be handed over to some needy persons, preferably to an orphanage.”

I am yet to retrieve from the shock. But it is a test for our Benevolence.

PROUD OF YOU DEAR AHUJAJI YOU ARE STILL LIVING THROUGH YOUR LOVABLE DAUGHTER AND FAMILY.

PROUD OF YOU DEAR TANIA—AND YOUR BROUGHT UP.

CANPAL IS TURNING AS A MOVEMENT.
