A PEEP IN TO THE PAST -3

Dear Friends

Today I will narrate the second story told by the speaker of the STUDY CIRCLE MEETING organised by Chennai CO.

As it is happening everywhere, the school teacher of a second standard in kolkata asked all the students, “ What do you want to become in future?”

As expected all told that they would become Doctors, engineers etc.,

But one boy got up and told with confidence, “ I want to become the cart man of the horse drawn cart which I am using to come to school.”

All surprised and then ridiculed.

The teacher also joined with the boys to make fun of him.

Boy returned home, with a saddened face.

As mother is one soul thoroughly understand the kid's emotions and needs, She asked the boy, “ why dear so sad and what happened to you?”

Boy narrated.

The mother hugged him and unlike the teacher asked him, “Why?”

The boy responded, “ Amma, he is my hero. He drives the cart so stylishly and he manages the cart to pass through the thick traffic of kolkata city.”

Mother kissed him and took him to puja room, pointed Lord KRISHNA charioting ARJUN and told, “ if you want to become, then come up like Lord KRISHNA,”

The boy was SRI VIVEKANANDA and the mother was SMT BHUVANESWARI DEVI.

Not then, but now I realise,

Everyone to have reasons and rights to have his own dreams and desires.

But, how we seniors and elders are going to understand, WHETHER AS TEACHER OR AS MOTHER?

The junior will become, as you guide.

Let's guide ourself to guide our juniors.
