A PEEP IN TO THE PAST -4

Dear Friends

Excellent feedback even from the top bosses in the industry and former top executives of Mother bank too.

Today we will see the third story narrated by the speaker during the study circle meeting.

The king of muscat - a wealthy man in the world who lives in absolute extravaganza was not having the habit of personally going to receive the heads of other countries as a part of protocol.

Even the visit of American president and the Queen of England were not an exception.

But,

When the Former President of India Mr Shankar Dayal Sharma visited Muscat, the King went to the Tarmac, climbed over the stairs and received our President when he emerged out of the aircraft, to everyone's surprise.

The king personally guided him up to the car and entertained him.

When he was asked, he responded, “ It was the respect given to my Teacher, but, not to the President.”

Let's now relate.

1. How many of us are remembering our bosses?

2. Whether we wish to be remaining as bosses alone to receive respect matching to our status in the institution

Or

To metamorphosis as a teacher to be remembered ever beyond what we deserve even after the retirement ?

Choice is ours.

We don't even have time to decide as almost all seniors are retiring shortly.

Let every boss learn to become teacher to be respected for ever.

Good day.
