"The beautiful thing about learning is that nobody can take it away from you." – B.B. King

Dear Canpals,

There are moments in our life that are truly special and today is one such amazing day that bring joy to thousands of Canpals and their family. The promotion results have been declared and the Top Management guided by our beloved MD & CEO has provided wonderful opportunities for thousands of Canpals, who aspire to reach top position in the industry.

I extend my sincere gratitude to our beloved MD & CEO for opening the gates of career opportunities to our efficient Canpals, who gave their best efforts on the field in taking the image of our Mother Bank to new heights.

The promotion results have illustrated the efficiency, dedication and brilliance of our Canpal Family Members. My heartfelt congratulations to each and every Canpal, who scaled yet another milestone in their illustrious career.

Promotion is neither just a change of designation nor merely an elevation in responsibilities; it is a testimony to the hard work, perseverance and commitment one exhibits consistently. CBOA has always believed that a strong, dedicated and knowledgeable workforce is the cornerstone of our Mother Bank's success. It is with this sacred vision, CBOA tirelessly undertook the noble task of training and equipping our officers with the necessary skills, knowledge and confidence, thereby enabling them to face the promotion process with burly confidence.

This year too, our preparatory sessions were meticulously planned and effectively executed with online training sessions, ensuring the participation of promotion aspirants from every corner of our country. To further broaden our support, a special executive training session was also organized with the best trainers in the industry, thereby aiding our executives to prepare comprehensively for their promotion process, complementing their strategic leadership vision and rejuvenated confidence.

Behind every successful promotion result lies the sweat, passion and tireless efforts of our trainers. CBOA is extremely privileged and blessed to have the unwavering support of dedicated faculties, both serving and retired, who have been the guiding stars, illuminating the path of knowledge for our promotion aspirants.

Friends, success belongs not only to those who achieve it, but also to those who guide, support and inspire us to achieve it. I, along with our Chairman, our President and the entire team of CBOA, extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to all the following faculties for their invaluable contributions in shaping the careers of our Canpals:
