‘Educate, Encourage and Empower’ – Happy national girl child day – a day to renew our commitment to ensure equal opportunities for our sisters and daughters. Pledging to build a equal and inclusive society.

Good Evening Dear sisters,

What better day can we conceive than the day of National Girl Child, to connect with all of you again. You are caring mothers, loving daughters and capable colleagues, who are known for delivering multiple roles effortlessly every day. An epitome of compassion and commitment, you truly are the backbone of any progressive society.

You are leaders globally—from the CEO who runs a Fortune 500 company to the housewife who raises her children and leads her pack, her household, so deftly. You had a decisive role in our national building right from our freedom struggle until today.

Today, our Bank is also run by our lady cadres from the lowest level to the highest level of executives. Women force in Scale I to III are the backbone of almost all the branches across the country, bringing in diversity and inclusion.

In the backdrop of having the largest number of women force in our bank, it becomes more important to further empower and strengthen our women-power both in bank as well as CBOA. Friends, feeling the same, our Lady comrades in CBOA have asserted a strong idea of: "We for She".

Taking that idea forward, on this important day, your CBOA has brought a platform to unite all the CBOA women force through a WhatsApp group.

With this in mind, we have identified women representatives from each Region , who will be the voice of the lady cadres in that region.

Accordingly, separate WhatsApp group with Regional women representatives is created to have a good network for the Women Comrades. Exclusive conclaves have also been planned for these representatives in days to come.

I request you to design a logo, plan activities and come out with a monthly in house magazine.

I can visualize you all as a big force to reckon with in the days to come.

Wish you all the very best.. God bless.

Let the synergies multiply.

Discipline in CBOA - Development in Canara Bank

Your General Secretary
