PUNE

OXFORD OF THE EAST

Pune, the Queen of the Deccan, the Oxford of the East and the seat of the brave Peshwas. What better venue to conduct the CC Meeting CBOA, the largest trade union of bank officers of PSBs.

The meeting started off in the grandest of the fashions with a sterling and sparkling flag hoisting ceremony that was characterised by regal Maratha pomp and glory. Our top leadership lead by our most vibrant and dynamic General Secretary Sri. Ravi Kumar K escorted our Chief Guest Sri. Debashish Mukherjee, Executive Director, Canara Bank and our Guest of Honor, Sri. Pramod Kumar Singh, General Manager & Circle Head, Pune Circle, Canara Bank to the dais for the Introductory Session.

The introductory session was put to an auspicious start by lighting the lamp that symbolises the expulsion of darkness and bringing of the light of knowledge. It was followed by invoking the blessings of our Founder, Sri. Ammembal Subbarao Pai by paying floral tributes.

Sri. Sachin Waikar, DGS & CCO Pune, officially welcomed the Central Committee to Pune on behalf of entire Team Pune. This was followed by the Presidential Address delivered by our President, Sri. Rajiv Nigam.

This was followed by the felicitation address delivered by Sri. Pramod Kumar Singh, General Manager and Circle Head, Pune Circle.

The Central Committee then witnessed, the scintillating and thunderous Inaugural Address delivered by our very beloved and visionary General Secretary, Sri. Ravi Kumar K, which set the tone for the entire CC Meeting.

Sri. Debashish Mukherjee, Executive Director of Canara Bank, delivered his key note address which was both thought provoking, inspiring and invigorating at the same time.

Sri. Jacob PC, Chairman of CBOA proposed the Vote of Thanks and this brought the Inaugural Session of Pune CC Meeting to a close.

After a short break, the CC reconvened and the business session of the CC was kicked off by the Introductory Address of Sri. Deorao Chapparghare, OGS CBOA, Pune after which he formally handed over the session to the President for further conduct of the sessions. On taking over charge of the session, the President invited the General Secretary to present the General Secretary's Report.

Our General Secretary then presented the General Secretary's Report which was very comprehensive and detailed. The GS Report was unanimously approved by the Central Committee. Setting the tone for further discussion our GS urged the Central Committee to utilise the platform of CC Meeting most effectively and discuss on all the relevant topics with special focus on 5 Day Banking, Fairness of the PLI scheme to executives, Pros and Cons of Localised Recruitment of Officers, Medical Insurance Policy of Bank and newly introduced Feedback System.

Over the course of the next one and a half days threadbare and truly illuminating discussions took place on all the topics suggested by our GS and lot more. As all of the Central Committee brought their collective intellects to the fore what emerged was brainstorming and ideation of the highest level. In between the discussions, Sri. Ravi Shankar, Treasurer CBOA, Sri. Chetan Rana, Welfare Secretary CBOA, Sri. Arun Kumar EV, Editor CBOA Friend & Guide Magazine and Smt. Neha Afreen, Editor She Can Women's Magazine also presented their reports.

At the end of the discussions, our GS replied to all the points that came up for discussion and the replies were thorough and exhaustive.

This was followed by the Prize Distribution Ceremony and Felicitation of Retirees.

Sri. Sudhir Jadhav, Regional Secretary, CBOA Pune finally proposed the Vote of Thanks and the august forum was brought to a close with the National Anthem.

"Today's, youth need a perfect blend and balance of result oriented and relationship oriented institution.

The officers community is so committed to the development of the bank, and because of the unconditional commitment and hard work our Mother Bank is progressing and the latest financial results portray the same."

General Secretary

United we stand, divided we struggle

"The employees are the life of a bank and the total balance sheet size of a bank is in effect, the total value of its employees"
- Debashish Mukherjee, Executive Director.

Trade unions safeguard workers from exploitation, ensuring fair wages, safe working conditions, and job security.

Unions provide employees with a unified voice to negotiate with employers for better pay, benefits, and workplace policies.

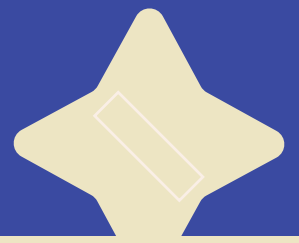

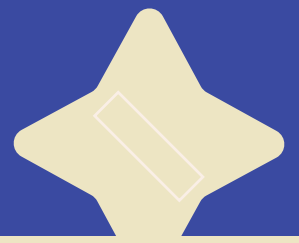

General Secretary's Report

Our esteemed General Secretary, Sri K. Ravikumar, presented a comprehensive report to the central committee members. The report covered a wide array of topics, starting with the cultural significance of Pune city and moving on to the recent socio-political landscape, the economic outlook, the Union Budget 2024-25, and the RBI's monetary policy. It also detailed the welfare measures undertaken by the association, membership updates, and other key matters. The report was well-structured, insightful, and addressed all the crucial concerns of the members, ensuring clarity and depth in every aspect discussed.
