RESOLUTION: STRENGTHENING WOMEN'S WINGS IN BANK TRADE UNIONS

In the 13th Triennial General Council of AIBOC, a significant resolution was put forth by our esteemed General Secretary, Sri K. Ravi Kumar. This resolution focused on bolstering the Women's Wings within bank trade unions—an essential step toward greater inclusivity and empowerment.

It fills us with immense pride that all AIBOC resolutions were eloquently presented by our respected General Secretary on the AIBOC stage. Among these resolutions, a key resolution was to provide more exposure and experiences to our women comrades across all banks.

“

The Confederation firmly resolves and reiterates its commitment to all the constitutional provisions and the government guidelines pertaining to the welfare of women and shall undertake every organizational recourse in this direction. AIBOC calls upon our women comrades to join trade union movement in larger numbers which can only ensure the ultimate victory.
