...SHINE THROUGH

20TH TRIENNIAL CONFERENCE :: 8-9-10 NOVEMBER 2025

EDITORIAL NOTE

As the dust settles in the aftermath of our 20th Triennial Conference at Visakhapatnam, it strikes one that some meetings are more than the sum of an accomplished agenda. They touch the inner chambers of our collective spirit. This year's Triennial was not a milestone for the organisation alone but a landmark evidence to the growing strength of CBOA women. Their voices rose, not as meek murmurs seeking space but as resonant declarations of purpose.

Visakhapatnam embraced us with its breath-taking ocean and ancient hills, reminding us that progress is often carved by forces which refuse to remain still. Under the diligent leadership of Vice President Sri P Rama Prasad, the Vizag team orchestrated a conference flowing with grace. Every minute detail showed thoughtfulness, making every participant feel valued.

Within these pages, you will find the testimonies of women who stood not as representatives but as leaders. Their accounts tell of quiet battles and unrecorded burdens borne with dignity. They shed light on the silent distances women walk to remain visible in the spaces that shift beneath their feet like sand at the tide's edge. But they also speak of the triumphs born from tenacity for no barrier is strong enough to dim a determined mind.

It is for a second time that CBOA has shown confidence in the leadership to re-elect our beloved General Secretary Sri. Ravikumar K. His steady guidance continues to shape the Association's journey much like a lighthouse casting its beam across uncertain waters.

This editorial collection is therefore not just a recording of an event. It is a tribute. A tribute to women who labour in shadow and shine alike. A tribute to leaders who carry the mantle with humility. A tribute to every officer who believes that purpose is the noblest compass.

May these words instill strength to whoever reads them and pride to whoever wrote them.

GENERAL SECRETARY'S MESSAGE

The 20th Triennial Conference at Visakhapatnam marked a moment of deep gratitude for me. I am honoured to be re-elected as General Secretary, holding with humility since leadership is never a solitary crown; it rests on the shoulders of every officer who believes in the collective heartbeat of our Association.

The conference reflected unity, chiselled with great commitment by the Vizag team, led by Vice President Sri P Rama Prasad. Their commitment brought a sense of harmony that allowed moments to be candid and aspirations to be shared freely.

What moved me most was the rising strength of our women officers. Their testimonies echo through these pages as reminders that progress is not merely measured by policy, but by the courage of those who step forward even when the path is new.

As we move forward, I renew my pledge to protect the dignity of every member and uphold the values that formed the backbone of CBOA. Like a river that cuts through rock not by force but by persistence, we too shall advance-through consistency, purpose, and unity. Let this edition of She Can be a celebration of every woman who leads with resolve.

The Unstoppable River

Sometimes in life, there are moments when words, however carefully chosen, fail to express the depth of gratitude one feels, and this is one such moment for me.

We stand here today not just as colleagues, but as a united, vibrant, and empowered community. This transformation, this revolution, is a tribute to a singular vision and a man who turned that vision into our reality: our beloved General Secretary, Sri K Ravi Kumar sir, the undisputed brainchild of the "She Can" movement that began three years ago.

Before he took charge, our story, the story of women leaders in CBOA, was one of quiet solitude. There were hardly any women leaders visible, and those who were, often worked in isolation. We were like scattered embers, waiting for a wind to breathe life into us.

Then came the "She Can" platform. It wasn't just a program; it was a declaration of faith in us. Our GS created a space for uniting us, bonding us, and motivating us like no one else in this industry has. He is, probably, the only man who is outrightly uplifting us, not just in words spoken casually, but in letter and spirit, through tangible action. He handpicks active leaders in every region and unites them under one umbrella, meticulously building on our collective strength.

This journey reminds me of a powerful, ancient truth:

The Unification by the Nile:

For centuries, the land of Egypt was split. The people of the North lived in the Lower Land (the Delta), and the people of the South lived in the Upper Land. They were separated by custom, geography, and often, by conflict, their potential scattered like the desert sand. Yet, the Nile River flowed through both. In the arid land, the annual flooding brought the life-giving silt, known as the 'Black Land' (Kemet). It was the shared, abundant gift of the Nile that gradually forced them to cooperate, to build shared canals, to manage the flood, and to trade along its unifying waterway. Eventually, a great ruler, acknowledging the river's essential role, brought these two separate kingdoms together, harnessing the power of the shared resource to create the world's first great civilization, sustained by the constant, flowing artery of life.

Dearest Ravi sir, you have been the Unifying Force, the Nile for the women of CBOA. Before you, we were separate kingdoms; thanks to the "She Can" platform, we are now a magnificent, cohesive civilization. You didn't just give us a voice; you built the channels so that our voices could become a choir. You didn't just open a door; you created an entire platform to lift us higher.

It is often said, "The true measure of a leader is not the number of people who serve him, but the number of people he serves." By this measure, sir, your leadership is unmatched. For your vision and for this extraordinary effort, on behalf of the entire women community of CBOA, please let me extend an eternal and heartfelt gratitude to our beloved GS. You have transformed our silent potential into an empowered reality.

Thank you, very much sir!

Canara Bank Officers' Association is proving these lines so aptly....

For every members benefit it is struggling, fighting but eventually succeeding...

At times it may seem why leadership is not acting on some issue...but keep faith....because we are blessed with a leadership who is burning midnight oil only for the cause of its membership....

You name the benefit you name the issue you will see CBOA is silently working on it....

Hence we as able soldiers of CBOA have to strengthen our Mother Association and our leadership....

Under the able leadership of our beloved General Secretary Shri K. Ravikumar we will ensure that the future is carved in marble for its members....

Triennial vibes are still alive in our minds, and the memories continue to bring smiles. I hope everyone is still enjoying those wonderful moments.

This Triennial gifted some truly beautiful memories, especially the ones captured with the wonderful ladies of our group.
These moments will always remain close to my heart. Every
from all over India came together, each representing the unique charm and culture of their place. I tried to capture a few glimpses, and together we created memories to treasure forever.

Heartiest congratulations Ravi Sir on being re-elected as the General Secretary of our mighty CBOA.

Heartfelt thanks to everyone for making this Triennial so memorable and filled with love, joy, and unforgettable moments.

A special thanks to Team Visakhapatnam — a beautiful city filled with love, warmth, and incredible hospitality.

Witnessing the 20th Triennial Conference at Visakhapatnam on November 8th, 9th, and 10th felt like being a part of history in the making.

From the moment the sessions began, the atmosphere was charged with energy — halls filled with ideas, conversations shaping tomorrow, and delegates joining hands with a shared purpose. Every discussion, every presentation, and every collective decision reflected our commitment to growth, unity, and progress.

Amidst this vibrant environment, we witnessed one of the most defining moments of the conference:

Sri K. Ravi Kumar sir being re-elected as the General Secretary.
The applause that echoed through the venue wasn't just a gesture — it was a heartfelt recognition of his leadership, dedication, and vision. To be present in that very moment, to see the trust of hundreds unite behind one name, was truly overwhelming and inspiring.

Carrying the same spirit of purpose back home, the Hanamkonda Region celebrated this success not with words alone, but with action.

A meaningful Canpal Activity was conducted at the Government High School for Tribal Children, where essentials were distributed to over 350 students. Their smiles, their excitement, and their gratitude turned the celebration into something far greater — a reminder that real leadership extends beyond conferences and titles; it touches lives.

From witnessing the grandeur of the Triennial Conference to seeing hope light up young faces, this entire journey stands as a testament to what we can achieve when we dream boldly and serve wholeheartedly.

Triennial Conference 2025 at Vizag.

For a first-timer, the large scale gathering, numerous sessions, and the presence of prominent figures was intimidating and overwhelming. But CBOA being a catalyst in igniting bundles of emotion made us feel home by spreading the warmth of love in the land of destiny. Vizag welcomed us with open arms and their warmth has melted our hearts.

* The Grand event of the Triennial commenced on 8th of Nov 2025.

* The meeting was addressed by our MD and in this meeting he claimed that he sees our Ravi Anna as his mirror image this single line describes the hold our Anna has in the heart of our MD sir.

The most powerful and moving moment of the Triennial was unveiling of the book " The Master Stitch - The Tale of a Mother's Love" . Seeing our beloved MD and CEO, Shri Satyanarayan Raju sir's mother unveil the book, honoring the entire family's journey and values , was a grand presence that spoke volumes .

CBOA IS EMOTION and the burst of emotions were the Intellectual Excitement: We felt exhilarated and inspired by exposure to new ideas, and different perspectives from experts in their field. Hearing about resolutions proposed and accepted and engaging in high-level discussions on the resolutions was the key highlight.

There was also a Sense of Community and Connection although out the three days of the Conference. The opportunities to meet and network with peers added a valuable new connections and a feeling of belonging to a professional community of CBOA family Information Overload: The sheer volume of parallel sessions and events lead to an "overwhelming" feeling, necessitating careful planning beforehand to prioritize areas of interest. Socializing: Beyond formal sessions, informal social events like happy hours or shared meals were crucial for building relationships in a more relaxed setting.

Overall, the experience was extremely positive with immense opportunity for learning, inspiration, and building a professional network.

The last day concluded with lots of joyous news for us members from the " city of joy"

A proud moment for all of us representing the kolkata circle that we witnessed 3 major elevations from our circle . Our JGS Ujjwal Narayan Da, Our DGS Sukanta Da & Our most dearest and my mentor new AGS Goutamee Di. Their appointment shows the faith of our GS towards our circle leaderships. We feel blessed that we have the opportunity to work under these seniors.

With lots of gratitude and thanks towards the Vizag team we concluded our meeting on the 10th Nov 2025. With hopes and dreams in our heart to meet again in the next Triennial.
